Petitioning the Court

The issuance of a no bail warrant for the offender's arrest.

I, Bobby H. Love, Jr., a Probation Officer employed in the United States District Court for the Northern District of California, solemnly affirm and declare, under penalty of perjury, that to the best of my information and belief, the facts set forth in this affidavit are true and correct. The factual affirmations made below are based on my personal knowledge, on official records or documents generated and maintained by my agency in the course of performing its functions, on official records or documents generated and maintained by other government agents or agencies in the course of performing their functions, or on information provided to me orally or electronically by employees or agents of other public agencies (information developed or acquired in the course of performing official agency functions).

Charge Number

Violation

One

There is probable cause to believe that the offender violated the standard condition which states that he shall report to the probation office in the district to which he is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

This charge is evidenced by this officer's testimony.

On or about February 28, 2008, the offender was released from custody. On March 4, 2008, the undersigned officer charged the offender's attorney to instruct him to report to the U.S. Probation Office at 2:00 p.m. on that day. The offender's attorney faxed a letter to the undersigned stating that the offender would contact me at the instructed time. The offender failed to report.

On March 6, 2008, the undersigned U.S. Probation Officer informed the offender's attorney that the offender had not reported and charged the attorney with instructing the offender to report on March 10, 2008, at 2:00 p.m. To date, the offender has not reported.

Address of offender:

102 Lysett Circle
Daly City, California 94015
